RENTAL HISTORY: Two references are obtained from previous landlords, if possible, relative to payment history, length of rental agreement, amount of rent, damages, and violation history. If Applicant is breaking an existing rental agreement, it must be determined what liability the Applicant has under the current rental agreement, which may affect the Applicant's ability to pay current rent. Any adverse information relating to these areas is grounds for rejection of an Applicant. An Applicant may be rejected for a poor prior rental history, for example if you have a history of late payments, previous non-compliances with a rental agreement or rules and regulations, have any unsatisfied judgment from a prior landlord or have been evicted from prior housing, or have a record of inadequate housekeeping.

AGE: All persons age 18 and older must complete a Rental Application, and qualify individually as a Resident. No person over age 18 or older may reside in the apartment without being approved as a Resident, and listed as a Resident on the Lease.

INFORMATION VERIFICATION: Applicant will be asked to provide verifiable information or documentation to support application items. These may include, but are not limited to, "Leave & Earnings Statements", pay stubs, evidence of taxes paid in past years, personal identification, or notarized confirmation of employment. Failure to provide such documentation may be grounds to reject an Applicant.

Resident must notify Landlord of any change in the household composition (such as the birth of an infant) during the term of the Lease, within fifteen (15)

If such change in household composition causes Resident to exceed the occupancy limit described above, then Resident may apply to transfer to another unit within the community that would meet the occupancy standards, if such a unit is available, no later than the applicable notice period set forth in the Lease for the end of the Lease term.
